

26 February 2019 | Term 1 Week 4

Welcome from the Principal

Welcome to week 4 of this term, and to a long weekend. The students have settled well into this term and you will be aware of all the things happening in the classroom from the teacher messages on Connect.

Department of Education website:

The Department has interesting articles on the website for parents. Following is an extract from the article "Before School". This is looking at the first five years of your child's life.

You are the most important person in your children's lives. Your family, friends and the broader community also play key roles in shaping their development.

It is vital that these relationships are positive and that your children's everyday experiences are meaningful, as it is these things that help shape the people they will grow to become.

Daily opportunities to play, laugh and learn are vitally important – they allow your children to keep trying new skills, communicate with others, take on challenges and solve problems in fun and enjoyable ways.

These, along with good health and nutrition, are extremely important in making sure your children get the best start in life.

The website has links to sites to help parents and also has videos to watch at <https://www.education.wa.edu.au/before-school>.

Plastic Fantastic!

North Morley Primary has been selected to take part in the Tree Trail Public Art run by the City of Stirling. Local artist Paula Hart will be coming in to run workshops with students in rooms 1, 2 and 6. Students will turn plastic waste (empty bottles and containers) into sustainable art, that will be displayed at Carine Regional Open Space. Colourful plastic such as sauce bottles and Vanish Napisan containers are ideal, however clear plastic can also be used. Please send in all your colourful (and washed) plastic containers to the collection box in the P&C building.

NIM Reading - Updated information.

The before school NIM (Neurological Impress Method) Reading programme will begin on Tuesday February 26, 2019. It is run on Tuesday and Thursday only between 8:15-8:30am in the new school library. This program is run by volunteers, where the child will read with the volunteer for between 5 and 15 minutes depending on availability of time.

If you have any queries or would like your child to participate please do not hesitate to contact Donna Reid during office hours on 9375 1051.
